

Dementia By Day Podcast

Sponsorship Opportunity

Hi! Thanks for sponsoring my podcast, Dementia By Day. This is for a one-time episode sponsorship. You'll receive 2 mentions (advertisements, but personalized) about your company during the episode. I'll also add your social media links into the description of the episode. This package is a total of $50.

This is a first-come, first-served opportunity: my next episode includes the company who pays in full next.

1. What is the name of your company?
2. If you had to describe what you do in one sentence, what would you say?
3. What's the best thing about your company?
4. What makes you stand out from competitors?
5. Please list your website and any other social links:
